Part B. for February

SUBJECT.

Mr. Chandrasekara Iyers increment

FILE No. 329 of 1904-05.

Question of advancing Mr. Chendrasekhara Aiyar's first increment of Rs. 40 by two months.

To the Comptroller, and Mr. Chendrasekhara Aiyar, No. Fl. 5802-3, dated 23rd February 1905.

Observes that the Deputy Secretary Mr. Chendrasekhara Iyer's request for his first increment being advanced by two months is a reasonable one as he has always been senior to Mr. P. Raghavendra Rao, and that the concession asked for will enable him to maintain that position and directs that the first increment of Rs. 40 which would otherwise accrue to him from 1st March next be sanctioned with effect from the 1st January 1905.

Memo

I beg to state that throughout my period of service I have been distinctly senior in standing to Mr P. Raghavendra Rao, Asst. Private Secy to H.H. the Maharaja (Vide Comparative Statt annexed, also G.O. no. 195-31-2 dt 2-5-95, and no. C. 102-3 dt 2-9-02).

And yet, by the recent order of 3d Jany 1905 no. 4134-6 F.F.256/4/1, giving him the status of a Deputy Secretary to Government, the first increment of Rs 40 to his pay has been made to fall due ~~from~~ on 1st Jany 1905, or two months earlier than my own first increment.

I cannot believe that by an arrangement giving to a Junior Officer the same status and pay myself with retrospective effect, any supersession in respect to me could have been contemplated. This, however, is what has happened. And I feel assured that the fact-has only to be brought to the notice of Government to ensure my being placed on at least an equal position with Mr. Raghavendra Rao -

By giving me my first increment of Rs. 40 from 1st Jan.y 1905, the extra charge to Govt will be inappreciable, since I have already acted as District Judge on a higher pay ~~a~~ during the greater part of January and the first few days of February 1905.

M Chandrasekhara

Submitted to His Highness.

Mr.Chendrasekhera Iyer's request for his first increment being advanced by two months appears to be a reasonble one. In the usual course it will accrue from 1st March next, but the recent grading of Mr.P.Raghavendra Rao with the Deputy secretary to Government and the grant of his first increment from the beginning of January last point to the desirability of Mr.Chendrasekhera Iyer also getting his first increment from the latter date. He has always been senior to Mr.Raghavendra Rao, and this small concession will enable him to maintain that position. The request may be graciously sanctioned.

For the greater part of January, Mr.Chendrasekhera Iyer has already drawn pay at Rs700 as District Judge and the extra cost involved will only be a small amount.

Memo. dated the 6th Feby 1905 from Mr K.S. Chandrasekhara Aiyar, Dep'y Secy to Govt, Genl & Dev. Depts, pointing out that the effect of ~~Govt Order No. H 4134-6~~ the recent promotion of Mr P. Raghavendra Rao to the post of a Dep'y Secy with a pay of Rs 640 from 1st Jany 1905 has been virtually to place that Officer, who has always been his junior, above himself & requesting that in the circumstances his first increment of Rs 40 may also be sanctioned from 1st Jany 1905.

Dy 28 Feby 05 — Order passed. — Cf Fin file 329-04

Mr Chandrasekhara Aiyar's request for his first increment being advanced by two months is a reasonable one, as he has always been senior to Mr P. Raghavendra Rao, & the concession asked for will enable him to maintain that position. The Govt of H.H. the Maharaja are therefore pleased to direct that

The first increment of £40 to his pay which he would otherwise become to him from 1st March next, be sanctioned with effect from the 1st January 1905.
